Dear Pete & family;

Perhaps you already know that I am somewhere in England. We are really roughing it here. There are many interesting things that have happened since I left the States that I should love to tell you about but which must be left unsaid for security reasons.

How are you folks, how are the boys. I do hope you are all well; when you go home tell dad Sis well, and say so for me.

After I get home I shall spend and evening telling you about our experiences.

Love to all

Ed
